Alveda King

The daughter of the late civil rights activist Rev. A.D. King and his wife Naomi Barber King, Alveda grew up in the civil rights movement led by her uncle, Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Her family home in Birmingham, Alabama, was bombed, as was her father's church office in Louisville, Kentucky. Alveda was jailed during the open housing movement. She sees the prolife movement as a continuation of the civil rights struggle.

Abby Johnson

Abby Johnson has always had a fierce determination to help women in need. It was this desire that both led Abby to a career with Planned Parenthood, our nation's largest abortion provider, and caused her to flee the organization and become an outspoken advocate for the pro-life movement.

CHOICE
A NATION DIVIDED

An investigative journey that explores the convictions of people fighting for reproductive freedom versus the right to life, which exposes the fears and struggles that divide our nation.

Documentary Feature / Festival Cut / TV Mini Series
This film draws all viewers - regardless of their viewpoint- to engage.

The landmark Supreme Court decision of Roe v Wade marked a powerful moment in the history of our nation. 47 years later, the profound and polarizing debate is still raging more fiercely than ever. This film will expose the rhetoric that has crippled our nation's desire to listen to each other and form a conversation instead of a debate.

Through the lens of the human spirit, we aim to educate and inspire the audience on the controversial issues of reproductive freedom and right to life. This timely film will explore woman's rights and how our society, medical science, culture, religion and politics are shaping that conversation.

This documentary explores three unique perspectives:

1. Legislative: Highlighting the bills and laws that shape this discussion; the on-going battle between the state and federal government and the threat to our Constitution; the potential impact of new justices on the Supreme Court. We will question if lawmakers are fully aware of the financial and socio-cultural changes caused by a change in policy.
2. Medical and Scientific: What roles do advancements in medicine, science and technology play in our legal and moral codes? Do these developments threaten or help our laws? What is the impact of this knowledge on our society?
3. Cultural: How does our society view a fetus at various stages of development? Has religion become viewed as an adversary to women's rights? How can we reconcile the vastly opposite viewpoints on either side of this debate and ensure all voices are equally heard including those who feel they have no choice?

The film features in-depth, exclusive interviews from real people who experience this decision on a daily basis and a diverse group of influential leaders in the respective fields of medicine, scientific research, politics, as well as activists and humanitarians alike. Their stories will create a powerful conversation regarding the possibilities and challenges when it comes to reproductive choice and the laws that govern it. Our viewers will be empowered with a perspective of how the external and internal forces that divide us can be the catalyst for an educated conversation instead of an uninformed argument.

Dr. Alveda King: Claim that 'Jane Roe' was paid to join pro-life cause is false

By Nick Givas
May 21, 2020

Evangelist Dr. Alveda King weighed in on the controversy surrounding the alleged deathbed confession of Norma McCorvey (Jane Roe) in an interview with Fox News on Thursday and said the idea of her acting as a hired gun or paid "mercenary" for the Christian right is a complete falsehood.

McCorvey, 69, passed away from heart failure in 2017, but posthumously made headlines this week as FX prepares to release a documentary about her life titled: AKA Jane Roe. It is set to premiere on Friday, according to The Guardian.

King, who works with Priests for Life and is the niece of the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., spoke with Fox News about her friendship with McCorvey, who was the plaintiff in the landmark 1973 Supreme Court case Roe v. Wade, which legalized abortion

Alveda King: As riots spread across US, heed words of my Uncle Martin Luther King to end violence and racism

By Julia Musto
May 30, 2020

Evangelist Alveda King called for unity and leadership from community and spiritual leaders Saturday after riots spread across the country, protesting the death of an unarmed black man in the hands of Minneapolis police.

King, the niece of Martin Luther King Jr., said on "Fox & Friends Weekend" that there must be justice in the killing of George Floyd and other innocent black men and women, but first there must be calm -- and faith.

MLK Jr.'s niece Alveda King speaks out against rioting overshadowing protests over George Floyd's death

By Joshua Nelson
May 31, 2020

Martin Luther King Jr.'s niece made an appearance on Fox News to address the rioting and violence that unfolded in Atlanta during the protest over the death of George Floyd.

"Our mayor here in Atlanta has done an incredible job telling people to go home," King told "Fox & Friends Weekend."

King continued, "She spoke with that authority as a mayor and a mother. However, all of us can calm this storm. Burning and looting are not good. It does lead to more violence: violence begets violence, so, I believe Martin Luther King Jr. said, 'when injustice anywhere is a threat to injustice everywhere.'"

Alveda King tells George Floyd protesters to 'march,' 'pray,' 'make your concerns known,' and 'vote"

By Yael Halon
June 1, 2020

Dr. Alveda King, the niece of civil rights icon Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., told "Bill Hemmer Reports" Monday that the riots and violence that have devolved from peaceful protests over the May 25 death of George Floyd is "disrespectful" to his family and tainting the message of legitimate protest.

"They are grieving. They miss their loved one," King said of Floyd's family. "This was a man who was helping to build and strengthen the community. And yet, these rioters and looters..." she trailed off.

Shortly before King joined Hemmer, Floyd's brother Terrence made an emphatic call for an end to the violence and decried looters and rioters who he said are undermining the family's search for justice.

Dr. Alveda King sends powerful message to Floyd family: 'It is very terrible ... to have to grieve publicly'

By Yael Halon
June 4, 2020

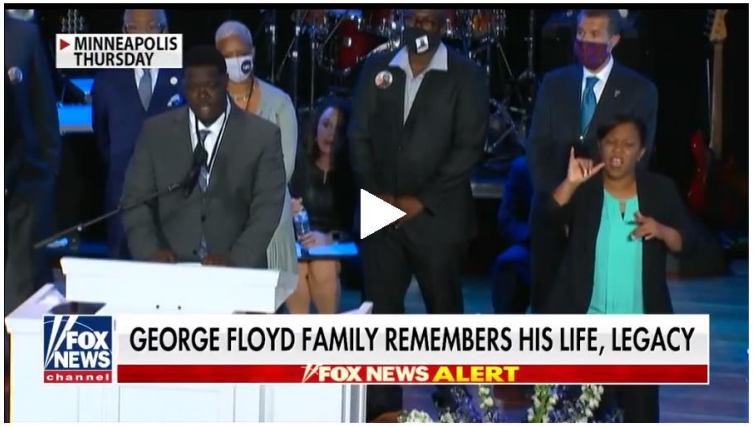

Dr. Alveda King, the niece of civil rights icon Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., sent an emotional message of hope and healing to the family of George Floyd Thursday following the first of many services set to be held around the country in his memory.

"It is very terrible to lose a family member to violence, to have to grieve publicly," King told "Your World" host Neil Cavuto.

"I was born in 1951," King said. "When I was 17 years old, my uncle, Martin Luther King Jr., was shot to death. And I sat there in the rows [of pews] with my family, publicly grieving, bewildered.

Dr. Alveda King: Protest is 'required' at this time but it must be peaceful and prayerful

By Julia Musto
June 5, 2020

While protest against police brutality and the death of George Floyd is necessary, it must be both peaceful and done with prayer, Evangelist Dr. Alveda King said Friday.

In an interview on "Fox & Friends" with host Ainsley Earhardt, King -- the niece of Martin Luther King Jr. -- said Thursday's memorial service honoring Floyd's legacy had reminded her of her father's words.

"I'm reminded of my father, Reverend Alfred Daniel Williams King, standing on a car in 1963 after our home in Birmingham, Alabama had been burned…[and] fire-bombed," she recalled. "And, Dad stood on the car and he [said,] 'If you must hit someone, hit me. But, I would rather you go home and pray. My family and I are fine.'"

MLK's niece criticizes Biden comments: 'Why is it necessary to compare Martin Luther King Jr. and George Floyd?'

By Louis Casiano
June 12, 2020

The niece of Martin Luther King Jr. said former Vice President Joe Biden was speaking from a differer reality when he said the death of George Floyd had a larger global impact than the assassination of the civil rights icon.

Alveda King was reacting to the comments from the presumptive Democratic nominee when he said “even Dr. King’s assassination did not have the worldwide impact that George Floyd’s death did.”

Dr. Alveda King: Joe Biden 'stirring the race card up' comparing uncle's death to George Floyd's

By Julia Musto
June 13, 2020

Joe Biden is "missing the mark" in his speeches by playing the "race card," Evangelist Dr. Alveda King asserted Saturday.

In an interview on "Fox & Friends Weekend" with hosts Griff Jenkins, Pete Hegseth, and Jedediah Bila, King -- the niece of Martin Luther King Jr. -- said that the 2020 Democratic presidential nominee was "out of touch with reality" when he suggested that the impact George Floyd's death has made on the world in recent weeks had perhaps been greater than that of the 1968 assassination of Dr. Martin Lutther King Jr.

Alveda King tells protesters: 'If you find yourself going into a rage over a statue, step back'

By Charles Creitz
June 23, 2020

Fox News contributor Alveda King, a niece of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., told "Your World" Monday that statues of historic figures can be problematic because of the potential for them to be seen as "idols.".

"I don't believe that we should fight over the statues," she told host Neil Cavuto. "I do feel like statues can be idols. Some people idolize Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Some people admire Martin Luther King Jr. Some people hate Martin Luther King Jr.“

King told host Neil Cavuto that she agreed with attorney Benjamin Crump, who told Cavuto Saturday that violently tearing down statues is not the most advisable way to effect change.

Alveda King: As riots spread across US, heed words of my Uncle Martin Luther King to end violence and racism

Opinion by Alveda King

May 31, 2020

Martin Luther King preached love, not hate; peace, not violence; and universal brotherhood, not racism.

As we see cities burning across America following the senseless killing of George Floyd in Minneapolis on Monday, there is a cry to heaven going up across America: Lord, please heal our land! It is a cry for unity, for social justice, for safety and for an end to hatred.

There is a unique opportunity for leaders of our families, our communities and our nation to open our stadiums, town halls, sanctuaries and social media streams and invite people to stop panicking and stop fighting and breathe.

Alveda King: Celebrating Juneteenth – Unite Americans by making it a national holiday

Opinion By Alveda King

June 19, 2020

This might be the year Juneteenth gets the respect it deserves. It's about time.

Juneteenth marks the day in 1865 when people held as slaves in Texas finally learned that the abhorrent practice had ended two years previously, when President Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation.

The proclamation freed "all persons held as slaves" in the states that had rebelled against the Union, and Texas was one of them. To understand how it took more than two years for slaves in Texas to learn they were free, you have to know a little bit of history about the Lone Star State.

Trump is moving the nation toward police reform and racial justice

Opinion By Alveda King
June 22, 2020

In his “I Have a Dream” address of August 1963, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. called for an end to the scourge of racism in the United States. Although our nation has made significant progress in the 57 years since Rev. King’s speech, the unjust murder of George Floyd proves there is still much work and healing to be done.

We must never forget Dr. King’s less cited but extraordinarily meaningful words from that same historic speech: “We can never be satisfied as long as the Negro is the victim of the unspeakable horrors of police brutality.”

As President Trump works toward building a more perfect union, America can dream again. Immediately after Floyd's brutal death, Trump made clear that he is fully committed to ensuring justice will be served for George and his family — that he will not have died on that gray pavement in vain. “Equal justice under the law," the president said, "must mean that every American receives equal treatment in every encounter with law enforcement, regardless of race, color, gender, or creed.”

The Abortion Industry Does Not Speak for Me

Opinion By Alveda King and Cindy Collins
June 24, 2020

Editor's Note: This piece was coauthored by Cynthia Collins, a Global Advisor to Operation Outcry.

“It is 2020 and women can speak for themselves” is a common theme in the mainstream media of today.

Nearly every time we turn on a television or scroll through social media, we are bombarded with this pro-feminist messaging. This year alone, there will be millions of dollars in political advertisement promoting this concept. Yet, the very same people are trying to say they speak for women in the Louisiana Unsafe Abortion Act case currently before the Supreme Court. Our answer is no, you do not.

Furthermore, this corrupt industry should not be pretending to advocate for the thousands of women it has so brutally hurt. How have we been hurt by the abortion industry? Bluntly, we had an abortion. We listened to the lies about how it was the best choice and not an infant life. We experienced the physical, emotional and spiritual consequences of our ‘choice.’

BAD HABIT #1:
LACK OF INVESTMENT IN STAFF AND VOLUNTEERS

People who have made the choice to invest in your vision are your volunteers—the time and energy you spend on them will be paid back with dividends. They're the ones who will multiply your ministry. On the other hand, your lack of investment in their care and development will only diminish your returns.

Growing your potential

Ineffective pastors often develop a "nuzzle-the-shepherd" style ministry. These leaders are so busy focusing on sheep that come and nudge them with their issues and problems that they don't have the time to invest in the more independent people in their care. They're training the needier sheep to continue to prod at them for attention, which is actually making them more dependent—not less. But if they focused on developing the leaders who've already stepped up and taken on responsibility, they could create a broader leadership base to deal with the needier sheep.

It can be intimidating for some pastors to invest in the people with the greatest potential. These volunteers and staff might have strong Type A personalities, or they might be better educated and have more experience. Very few seminaries and Bible schools are training pastors to manage people.

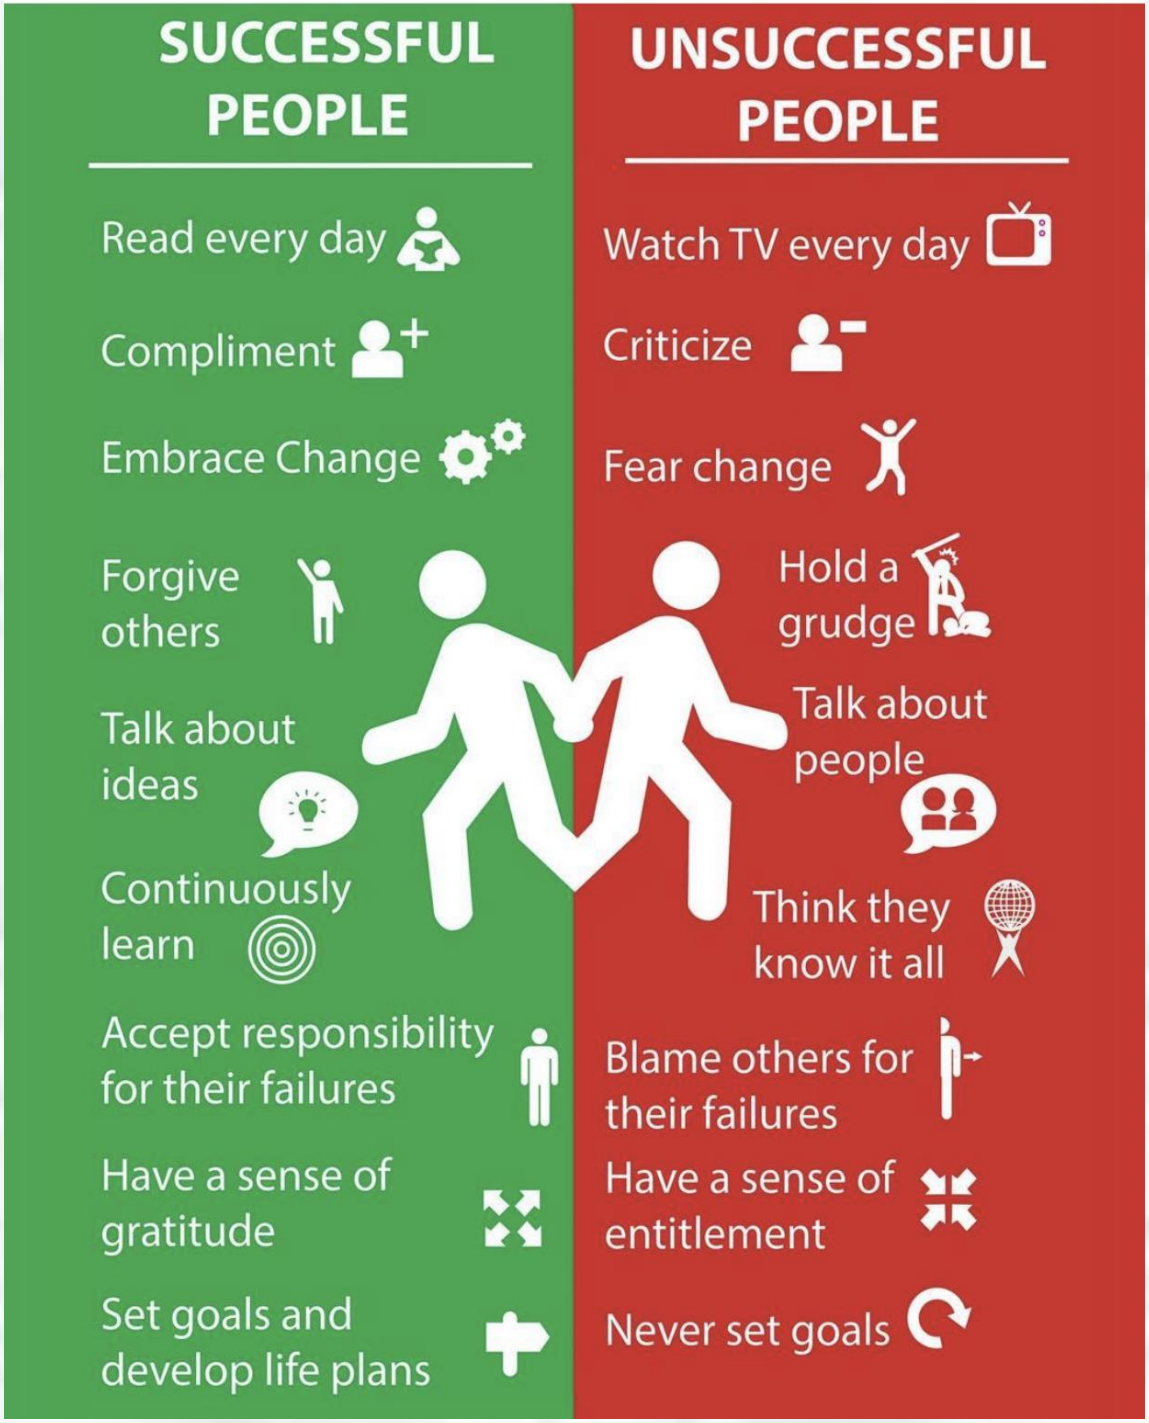

Invest in your leadership and management skills. There are no substitutes for these skills in church leadership. The better you get at leading others, the larger your capacity grows, because new leaders can take up the slack of leadership and development. The church is people—people who need to be developed, matured, and released into ministry.

GA State Reps Alveda King (Beal), Dick Lane debate over Domestic Violence crisis. King-Beal: "...Women are being hit upside the head." Lane: "Mr. Speaker is it not true that women need to be hit upside the head?"

Catherine Davis, Founding Core Member for the National Black Prolife Coalition states, "The women of Selma and Alabama have won a victory with the closing of the illegal abortion operation of Samuel Lett. We do not know how many women lost their fertility, or even lives, at his hands. We are rejoicing, however, that our actions have resulted in the closure of this center."

Trump declares National Day of Prayer amid coronavirus pandemic

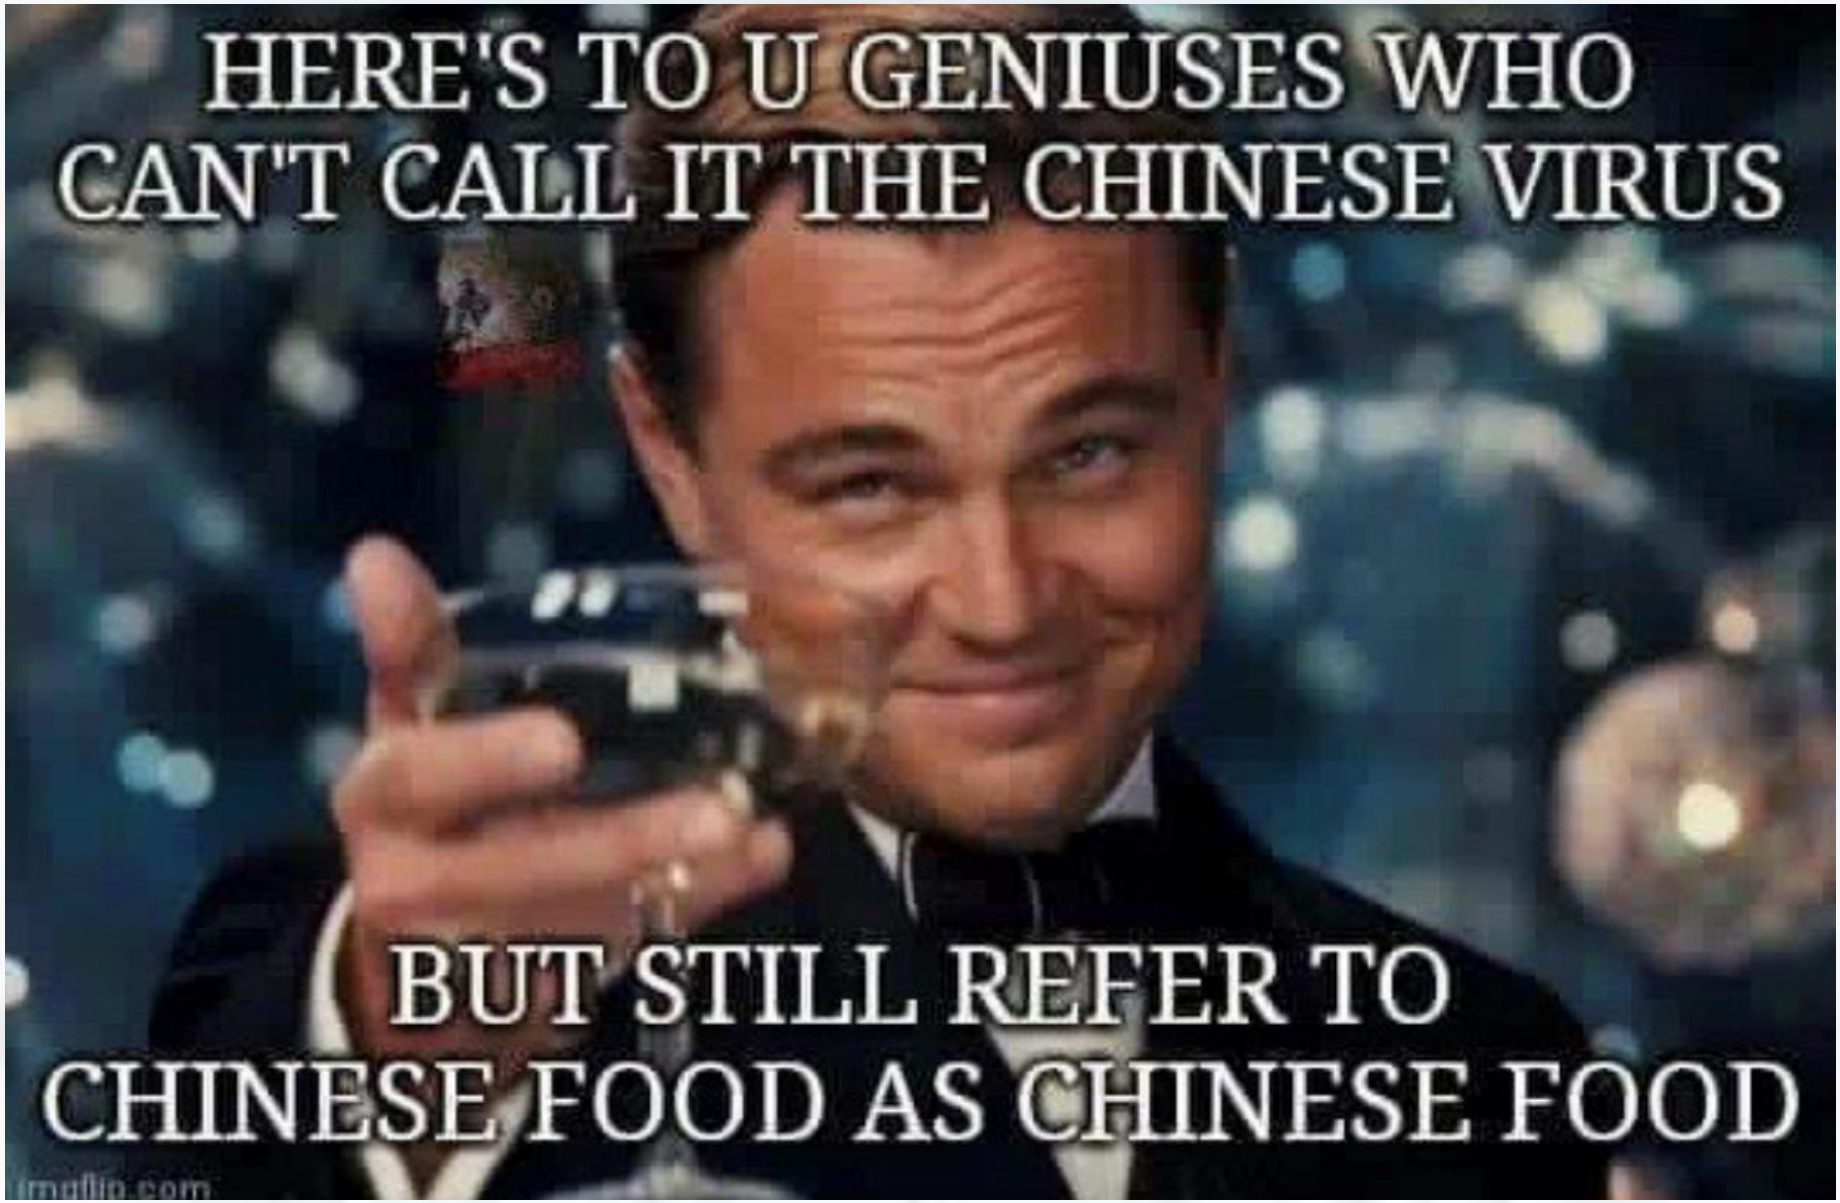

"Science investigates; religion interprets. Science gives man knowledge, which is power; religion gives man wisdom, which is control. Science deals mainly with facts; religion deals mainly with values. The two are not rivals."
~Martin Luther King, Jr

Religion, science and philosophy agree, all human life is sacred. Praying to defeat COVID19.

"During the first debate, I remember texting friends, 'Mr. Trump is like a bull in a china shop.' Then God revealed this to me. 'Yes, and bulls are beautiful and magnificent creatures, and china is fragile.'
"In context of America's economy, the bull represents a strong economy. Even in the face of COVID-19 and the street riots of 2020, we must remember we entered this era with a strong economy and the job rate for African Americans is the highest in recent history. And yes, the China issue is very fragile." – Evangelist Alveda King

"THE MOST PROLIFE PRESIDENT EVER"

We are still in the middle of a pandemic, yet the Trump administration is once again trying to force women to appear in-person to access abortion services.

Race and Racial Identity Are Social Constructs

Angela Onwuachi-Willig, a professor of law at the University of Iowa College of Law, is the author of "According to Our Hearts: Rhinelander v. Rhinelander and the Law of the Multiracial Family."

UPDATED SEPTEMBER 6, 2016, 5:28 PM

Race is not biological. It is a social construct. There is no gene or cluster of genes common to all blacks or all whites. Were race “real” in the genetic sense, racial classifications for individuals would remain constant across boundaries. Yet, a person who could be categorized as black in the United States might be considered white in Brazil or colored in South Africa.

Black America Finding Focus in 2020

Yesterday's pain throbs intense; Ginsburg's passing generates suspense
In 2020 a year where very little has made any sense

Black America, here are two visions on which we can gain focus
It's not by chance, nor is it some kind of hocus pocus,

But divine destiny descending down onto our unborn
For too long they have been drugged, ripped, tugged, and torn.

But two visions have been sent from heavenly places,
To turn hearts, tear apart evil, and soften hardened faces.

One, the President on his knees as black baby Jesus beams,
President Trump kneeling as a wise man in a nativity scene--

Angels are watching from overhead
As the sheep and the cattle are being fed...

The other, him standing, cuddling black baby Jesus, both with smiles,
President Trump saying, "I will go the second mile."

In smoke and chaos we, like the lost tribes of Israel, shall scatter,
But holding fast together, we can grasp what's true—

ALL BLACK LIVES MATTER
Because small black lives matter, too.
