30th Anniversary of Evangelium Vitae. A reason to celebrate!

March 11, 2025

Dear Father/Deacon,

On March 25 we celebrate the 30th anniversary of the strongest and most comprehensive teaching document of the Catholic Church on abortion, The Gospel of Life (Evangelium Vitae), published by Pope John Paul II in 1995.

This document has been received with gratitude by Christians of all denominations and by others of good will who want to help end abortion. So we want to bring it again to the attention of the world.

We have created a special website to celebrate this anniversary. See

GospelOfLife.org

On that page, you will find a link to the text of the document itself, a study guide prepared by Priests for Life, and other news, commentary, and tools to teach and share the document.

Including a link to a video series on this encyclical called
The Gospel of Life: Lessons with Pro-Life Leader Frank Pavone.
There will be four videos produced, covering each chapter of the Encyclical. The first video is ready to watch.

Stay tuned to www.EndAbortion.TV, where subsequent programs will be listed on the airing schedule. Programs also air on my platforms (@frfrankpavone and are available as podcasts at www.EndAbortionPodcast.us.

Please spread the good news of this encyclical and the resources we offer to study it in greater depth. We encourage you to start a study group in your parish.

Blessings,

Please fax this back to 321-225-8271
