An Opportunity to Bestow a Name on a Forgotten Unborn Child
www.NameTheChildren.org

August 14, 2025

Dear Father/Deacon:

We have become dehumanized by a culture that permits abortion. When culture and law fail to consider the unborn as persons, not only are those children dehumanized, but so are those who kill them, and so are the rest of us. We all need repentance and healing. We need to be re-humanized.

Building a culture of life includes changing the way we all think, speak and act toward the children who are living in the womb, and those who died before birth. Together, we must learn to treat them as persons. And something we all know is that every person has a name.

Mourning the children who have been killed by abortion, remembering them, burying them (when we have their remains), and giving them a name, is part of the process of re-humanizing them, our society, and ourselves.

In my role as Pastoral Director of Rachel's Vineyard and Silent No More, my team and I assist such parents who mourn the children they lost through abortion. Part of that grieving process is to name the children.

Our Name the Children project gives you a chance, therefore, to name an aborted child, among the countless children who will otherwise never be given a name. Go to www.NameTheChildren.org.

Also see www.ProLife.Church to find other great parish projects.
