Opportunities for Pro-Life Action in Your Community

September 4, 2025

Dear Father/Deacon,

Years ago, I conceived the idea of having a day where we would invite people nationwide to pray at the graves of aborted babies. I had presided over may funerals of aborted babies and I always saw the impact these ceremonies had on the participants.

Now, with the support of multiple groups, that has become the National Day of Remembrance, which will again be celebrated on Saturday, September 13, 2025. Solemn prayer vigils will be conducted at these gravesites as well as hundreds of other sites dedicated in memory of aborted children. For more information see:

RememberAbortedChildren.org

Also, the Fall 40 Days for Life Campaign begins September 24. I just gave the keynote speech at their annual national symposium, and I can recall as if it were yesterday my conference calls with the national 40 Days leaders when they were just beginning this movement. And I recall just as vividly the many national leaders who came to me as word began to spread about 40 Days for Life, and they would ask me, "Is this a good thing to endorse?" And I always told them unequivocally, "Yes. This will spread like wildfire." I knew that the grassroots pro-life movement was ready for it, because I had prayed with them in front of almost every abortion mill in America since 1983. Priests for Life provides great prayer resources for both of these efforts at ProLifePrayers.com.

Another way that Priests for Life partners with 40 Days for Life and the National Day of Remembrance is through our Silent No More Awareness Campaign (SilentNoMore.com). This is a project of Priests for Life and Anglicans for Life, through which those who have lost children to abortion share their stories. Those testimonies which can be found at www.AbortionTestimonies.com can dissuade someone from walking into an abortion facility.

Feel free to use these powerful testimonies in your sermons or as bulletin inserts.

Blessings,

Please fax this back to 321-225-8271
