Spiritual Resources for You and Your Parishioners During Respect Life Month

October 15, 2025

Dear Father/Deacon,

For Respect Life Month we want to provide you and your parishioners with great resources to help you observe it meaningfully. We are the Church's largest and most experienced ministry focused on ending abortion.

At www.EndAbortion.TV and all of the platforms linked from that page, you can see lots of great programming. Those programs include:

The Living Word: Daily Scripture Reflections: Drawing on my three decades' experience of preaching and teaching on Scripture and prolife topics, I provide these stirring commentaries on the Scriptures, usually drawing from one or another of the readings assigned to each day in the liturgy. These reflections also contain times of prayer for one another, and an opportunity for viewers to leave their own prayer intentions in the comments. These reflections are specially geared towards showing how the Word of God shapes and strengthens our commitment to defend the unborn from abortion.

The Living Word airs daily at 10 a.m. ET. Past shows can be seen at TheBibleAndAbortion.org.

Daily Pro-Life Holy Hour of Prayer: The Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the Holy Rosary, and Eucharistic Adoration with the Stations of the Cross daily at 3 p.m. ET. Also watch at ProLifeHolyHour.org.

Join us in our current Novena from October 14-22, a Novena to St. John Paul II found at PrayerCampaign.org.

For Clergy, tune in to my monthly Good Shepherd Project Seminar on EndAbortion.TV and all of the platforms linked from there on Wednesday, October 22 at 8 p.m. ET. We will continue the discussion on Respect Life Month.

At www.ProLife.Church, you will find more resources on prayer, preaching, counseling, and parish activities.

Blessings,

Frank A. Pavone
